1) The telephone rang and rang, but I was not in the house to get the call from my mom.

2) The horse and cart outside on the street was a big distraction to the students who were trying to take a test inside.

3) Please transport all of the classroom items from your home to school so that everyone can use them.

4) The extraterrestrial did not come from this Earth, rather he was from a planet far, far away.

5) The bee was attracted to the sweet smell and vibrant color of the flower and couldn't help but fly into it.

6) I would like to import some fine spices from India to Oregon so that I may use them in my cooking.
