- 1) The paragraph is written about a little boy and his dog named Bailey.
- 2) Orangeburg and Briggsmore run parallel to each other and never cross.
- 3) Because he had kidney disease, Joe needed to have dialysis each week, in which his blood passed through a machine to get the toxins out.
- 4) The perennials were in bloom throughout the entire year, instead of wilting away after one season.
- 5) Beorn won the spelling bee because she is an extraordinary speller.
- 6) What do you think would happen if an extraterrestrial came to FOP?
